

I urge the FCC to inform the general public about the proposed deregulation of the media. I think that this subject deserves mainstream national media attention. (Such information is currently nowhere to be seen or heard from the corporate media that will benefit from this business proposal.) I believe that deregulation of the media will pose negative repercussions for viewers and independant or publically funded stations.